

I have been very happy since I signed up for the do-not-call list. It is made life a lot more peaceful not getting calls during meal times and on weekends. Do not let these institutions that are trying to change this have their way. If they get this piece of the pie, you can expect more.